

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

Dan Waite

Dan Waite is a partner in the Litigation and Real Estate practice groups of Lewis Roca. His practice focuses primarily on business litigation, with an emphasis on real estate, mechanic's lien, and fiduciary litigation. His practice also encompasses transactional work, including contract drafting and review, advising corporate clients regarding alter ego analysis, and general corporate matters.

Dan has practiced law in Nevada since 1990 and has considerable experience working with and representing owners, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, trustees, and other fiduciaries and governmental entities. He has represented business clients both U.S.-based and international, including France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, and Canada. Dan presents to lawyers, lenders, and construction professionals on mechanic's lien and related real estate matters.

After graduating from Brigham Young University with a Bachelor of Science in finance, Dan was the executive vice president and general manager of Ponderosa Management Corporation, a property management company with holdings in Nevada, California, Arizona, Utah, and Idaho. In 1990, he graduated magna cum laude from the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University.

Dan has received numerous awards for his pro bono work, community service and outstanding lawyering.

He began serving as General Counsel of the Legal Aid Center Board of Directors in 2023.
