

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF JOICE BASS

Joice Bass joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in 2016 as a Litigation Attorney in the Consumer Rights Project, representing homeowners in foreclosure defense. In 2019, Joice transitioned to the Guardianship Advocacy Program to provide much-needed representation for protected persons in adult guardianship cases. As a guardianship attorney, Joice defends the rights of the elderly and adults with disabilities who are facing guardianship and those who are currently under a guardianship. With the involvement of appointed counsel, individuals under guardianship are ensured a continuing voice in legal proceedings that have a significant impact on their lives.

Joice believes strongly in the mission of Legal Aid Center—to preserve access to justice for those in our community who are the most vulnerable and who might not be able to procure legal representation otherwise. She is committed to providing her clients with the same high quality of representation found in many of the largest law firms.

Joice received her law degree from the University of California, Davis in 2000 and is licensed in both California (inactive) and Nevada. Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, Joice had over 15 years of experience as a business and civil litigation attorney practicing in both federal and state courts as well as alternative dispute resolution forums such as mediation and arbitration. Joice is a member of the Nevada Bar Association as well as the Clark County Bar Association.
