

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF LAILA-ROSE HUDSON

Laila-Rose Hudson is a staff attorney in the Children's Attorneys Project. She is a 2022 graduate of The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, where she received her J.D. and Certificate in Children's Legal Studies. Laila-Rose is barred in Ohio in addition to being specially admitted to the Nevada Bar.

As an outspoken alum of the foster care system herself, Laila-Rose has always been a passionate advocate for child welfare. During law school, she participated in the Foster Youth Internship program, a legislative internship sponsored by the Congressional Coalition of Adoption Institute, where she researched policy initiatives concerning the child welfare system and briefed Federal legislators with her findings.

In her spare time, Laila-Rose enjoys trying new restaurants, creative writing, and spending quality time with her loved ones.
