

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF SAMANTHA ZABO

Samantha joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in March 2021 as an attorney in the Children's Attorneys Project, where she represents abused and neglected children in Southern Nevada. In addition to being a licensed attorney in Nevada, Samantha is also a Certified Mediator and adds diplomacy to her legal expertise.

Samantha attended the University of Nevada, Reno where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice Pre-Law and Political Science. Samantha earned her Juris Doctor in 2019 from William S. Boyd School of Law. While a law student at Boyd, Samantha served as President of the Public Interest Law Association, Vice President of the Organization of Women Law Students, and was an active member of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity. In 2018, she was named the Public Interest Law Student of Distinction by Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada.

Samantha enjoys spending time outdoors and taking trips to admire the natural beauty of the Southwest.
