

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF APRIL STOKES GREEN

April is the Director of the Family Justice Project, which consists of ten attorneys, three paralegals, and four legal assistants, in the areas of family law and immigration with the support of a Deputy Director. April has been with Legal Aid Center since March of 2003 when she moved here from New York. April is the past Chair of Nevada Coalition to End Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault and currently sits on the Attorney General's Nevada Committee on Domestic Violence.

April is a graduate of the University of California, Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco, California and received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Wellesley College in Massachusetts. She is a licensed attorney in New York and specially admitted in Nevada. Prior to coming to Nevada, April had her own private practice in New York where she practiced in the areas of divorce, real estate, probate and general litigation. She started her legal career as an associate with Meyers, Saxon & Cole in Brooklyn, New York practicing in the area of commercial litigation.