

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF STEPHANIE McDONALD

Stephanie McDonald re-joined the staff of Legal Aid Center as the directing attorney at the Family Law Self-Help Center in 2013. In this position, she oversees operations at the Family Court Self-Help Center providing information, forms, and procedural guidance to self-represented litigants navigating family court. Stephanie first worked for Legal Aid Center in 2010 as the Bankruptcy Facilitator. She also served as a law clerk in family court for the Honorable Mathew Harter and the Honorable Sandra Pomrenze.

Stephanie graduated summa cum laude from the William S. Boyd School of Law in 2007. While in law school, she served as the Articles Editor for the Nevada Law Journal. She was on the Dean's List, received CALI Awards for the highest grade in seven classes, and received a full academic scholarship.

She received her Bachelor's in Sociology from Willamette University and spent several years working for nonprofit social service agencies prior to attending law school.
