

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF AMY HONODEL

Amy joined Legal Aid Center in 2013 as a staff attorney for the Children's Attorneys Project. In 2017, Amy accepted the opportunity to be a Children's Attorneys Project Team Chief. Also that year, Amy became the third staff attorney in CAP to receive the Child Welfare Law Specialist Certification from the National Association of Counsel for Children. She currently serves as the Strategic Initiatives Manager of the Children's Attorneys Project (CAP) at Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada. In that role, Amy oversees policy initiatives and impact litigation, in collaboration with Legal Aid Center senior management and CAP Team Chiefs. She also serves as the liaison between CAP and the Legal Aid Center Pro Bono Project; Amy assists the Pro Bono Team with recruitment and training efforts.

Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, Amy spent 12 years in private practice, during which she represented several youth in foster care on a voluntary basis through the Pro Bono Project. Amy graduated magna cum laude from the William S. Boyd School of Law at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas as a member of the Charter Class in 2001. At graduation, Amy received the William S. Boyd Outstanding Graduate Award.

Amy is a devoted Chicago Cubs fan and loves exploring Nevada outside of Las Vegas in her spare time.
