

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF ANNIE YOUCHAH

Annie Youchah joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in 2023 as a staff attorney for the Children's Attorneys Project (CAP). As a CAP attorney, Annie represents abused and neglected children in foster care.

Annie received Bachelor of Arts degrees in Philosophy and Cognitive Science from the University of California, San Diego in 2017. Annie then moved to Northern California and graduated from the University of California, Davis School of Law in 2020, where she received her JD and a Public Interest Law certificate. During her time in law school, Annie chaired the King Hall Legal Foundation, a non-profit focused on funding law students to take otherwise unpaid legal positions. She also participated heavily in mock trial. Annie is barred in California and specially admitted to the Nevada bar. Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, Annie spent a year working as a Federal Public Defender in Las Vegas.

In her spare time, Annie enjoys trying new restaurants in Las Vegas and spending quality time with her loved ones.
