BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF CHRISTINE MILLER

Christine Miller joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in 2003 as a staff attorney representing victims of domestic violence and handling family law cases. She took a leave of absence for family purposes and returned in 2009. Ms. Miller transitioned to the Consumer Rights Project representing clients in foreclosure matters and assisting victims of consumer fraud. She has been featured on local radio and news programs addressing various foreclosure and consumer related issues in Nevada. In 2016, Ms. Miller began representing vulnerable and elderly adults in guardianship cases, advocating for their legal rights. In September 2017, Ms. Miller became Director of Community Initiatives and Outreach at Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada. She is a liaison between Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada and its Nevada community partners and she manages marketing, community service events, and grant related projects.

Prior to law school, Ms. Miller attended the University of California, Irvine for her undergraduate studies where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Ecology. She received the Outstanding Contribution to the Community Award for her research concerning ADR. Ms. Miller obtained her Juris Doctorate degree at Western State University College of Law in California where she was the recipient of five American Jurisprudence Awards.

Ms. Miller enjoys spending time with her family, traveling and outdoor activities. She is a member of both the California and Nevada State Bar.
