

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF DANA ALMBERG

Dana joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in 2025 as a Staff Attorney in the Education Advocacy Program as part of the Early Hire Pipeline to Justice Program. Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, she graduated from Boston University with an undergraduate degree in Molecular Biology and received her Juris Doctor from the University of Virginia, where she participated in legal clinics for housing law, youth public defense, and education law. During law school, she interned at the Baltimore Public Defender's Office in the Youthful Defender's Unit, the Arch City Defenders in St. Louis, and the Department of Justice Civil Rights Division in the Special Litigation Section, where she was involved in advocacy related to conditions in prisons and juvenile detention centers. Dana was also a student lead researcher for the American Law Institute's Children and the Law Restatement. In her free time, Dana enjoys baking, rock climbing, and aerial dancing.
