

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF EMMA THEIS

Originally from San Antonio, Texas, Emma Theis graduated from the University of St. Thomas School of Law in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in May 2024. Emma's experience includes roles in her law school's Special Education Clinic, where she advocated for students' rights under the IDEA, and at the Autism Advocacy & Law Center, where she managed a heavy guardianship caseload. She also brings a background in criminal appeals from a judicial internship at the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

While in law school, Emma completed over 400 service hours and was active in the Law School Soccer Club. She competed in the Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, placing as the third ranked oralist at the 2023 Portland National Round, and she served as the Articles Editor for the University of St. Thomas Journal of Law and Public Policy. Prior to law school, she graduated with a Bachelor's in English Literature from the University of St. Thomas, where she was a varsity soccer player and a Dean's List honoree.
