Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada
Law Clerk, Summer 2019
Family Justice Project – Immigration

The Family Justice Project provides a range of representation to victims of domestic violence. Our attorneys appear at hearings to enforce protective orders and assist with divorce and custody issues. We help battered immigrants self-petition the government to remain lawfully in the United States. We also represent victims of crime who have civil and family law problems that are a result of their victimization.

Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada's Family Justice Project law clerks assist with immigration files and general family law matters, such as divorce, guardianship and protection orders. The immigration unit clerk will be responsible for preparing forms, research & drafting, reviewing documents and packaging petitions to be mailed to USCIS. There may be opportunities to assist with outreach and intakes. Spanish fluency is a plus. The time commitment is a minimum of 15 hours per week under public interest grants if applicable, or at the pay rate of $15.00 per hour.

Please contact Sophia Romero with any questions at 702-386-1453 or send a cover letter, resume, writing sample, & transcript to sromero@lacsn.org to apply. Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada conducts a background review on all employees.
