

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF JASON FISHER

Jason Fisher joined Legal Aid Center's Consumer Rights division as the first attorney to lead the Clean Slate Legal Assistance Program, helping clients seal their Nevada criminal histories. Jason earned his Juris Doctor from the University of New Hampshire Franklin Pierce School of Law in 2011 and spent 10 years practicing in Georgia and Tennessee prior to joining Legal Aid Center. Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, Jason spent several years with the Georgia Public Defender and in private practice as indigent counsel in criminal defense and family law. He remains an active member of the Georgia and Tennessee bar.

Jason holds a BS in Communications from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville and an MA in English from Valdosta (GA) State University. He is most proud of his twin boys, who are now undergraduates at the University of Tennessee-Knoxville.
