

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF MARCUS BROUWERS

Marcus joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in February 2020 as a staff attorney representing children in minor guardianship cases. Before coming to Legal Aid Center, Marcus practiced with a private family law firm handling divorces, custody matters, estate planning, and representing parents in Dependency cases. Marcus was born and raised in Las Vegas. He holds an undergraduate degree in Political Science from Carroll College in Helena, Montana in 2015. He received his J.D. from the Alexander Blewett III School of Law at the University of Montana in 2018. Marcus is licensed to practice law in Nevada.

While in law school, Marcus was a CALI Award Recipient in Lawyering Fundamentals. He served as president of the student chapter of Outlaws and vice president of NALSA (Native American Law Student Association).