

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF PATTY L. WALSH

Patty L. Walsh joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in 2022 as a Guardianship Attorney in the Consumer Rights Project Division.

Patty attended University of Nevada, Las Vegas (“UNLV”) and obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. During that time, she served as News Editor and Staff Writer for the UNLV student newspaper, interned for CBS News headquarters in New York, deejayed for KUNV 91.5 FM, and was a freelance journalist for various local and national publications.

Thereafter, Patty graduated from The George Washington University Law School, where she served as Notes Editor for The George Washington Law Review and clerked for the United States Department of Justice Tax Division and The United States Attorneys’ Office Criminal Division in the District of Nevada.

Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, Patty worked at the Nevada Attorney General’s Office, where she managed bankruptcy litigation, prosecuted civil cases, represented administrative agencies in various state, federal and administrative forums, drafted Attorney General advisory opinions, and researched legislative history. Currently, Patty serves on the Editorial Board for the Nevada Lawyer publication.
