

Richard Morgan, Esq.

Dick Morgan was the founding dean of the William S. Boyd School of Law, University of Nevada-Las Vegas, a position he held from September 1997 through June 2007, when he became Dean Emeritus. His highly distinguished career in legal education spanned 27 years and included service as dean of the colleges of law at the University of Wyoming and Arizona State University, as well as Interim Dean of the UNLV College of Business. Mr. Morgan also previously worked in the private sector as an attorney specializing in business associations, securities, corporate governance, and tax issues. He has frequently conducted presentations to campus and community groups, participated in panels and programs on higher education issues, acted as speaker or moderator at CLE events, and has participated or chaired numerous committees and task groups.

While Mr. Morgan is retired from full-time employment, he continues to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of Sletten Companies, as a member of the Compliance Committee of MGM Resorts International, and as chair of the compliance committees of three different companies-- Universal Entertainment Corporation, Aruze Gaming America, Inc. and CG Technology.
