

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF SHAUNA HILL

Shauna Hill joined Legal Aid in the summer of 2022 as a staff attorney for the Guardianship Advocacy Project where she provides representation for vulnerable adults who are under guardianship or are going through the process of guardianship proceedings.

Shauna was first licensed in New Mexico (inactive) in 1999 and Nevada in 2009. She started her career as a prosecutor in rural New Mexico in 1999. She was in charge of the Domestic Violence Unit for the District Attorney's Office. She worked closely with law enforcement and victim advocates to protect victims from further abuse. While at the prosecutor's office, Shauna handled numerous jury trials and many more bench trials.

After leaving the district attorney's office, she built her law practice alongside her husband who is also an attorney. Shauna almost exclusively handled family law matters including divorce, custody, adoptions and some guardianship matters.

In her free time, Shauna enjoys spending time with her family including watching her talented daughters perform. She is also an avid animal lover.
