

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF SKYE HARRIS

Skye Harris is a dedicated legal advocate with a strong commitment to public service. She earned her J.D. from St. Mary's University School of Law in 2024 and holds a B.A. in Criminal Justice from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Prior to becoming an attorney, she spent five years as a 911 call-taker for the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, where she developed a deep understanding of the challenges facing individuals and families in crisis.

Her passion for serving the community led her to pursue a career in law, with a focus on providing accessible legal support to those in need. She briefly worked in civil litigation in Texas before returning to her public service roots at Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada. As a single mother of two daughters, she is especially attuned to the real-life challenges faced by the clients she serves.
