Sonya Toma joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada as a staff attorney at the Family Law Self-Help Center in 2018. In this position she assists the Directing Attorney with overseeing operations at the Family Law Self-Help Center providing information, forms, and procedural guidance to self-represented litigants navigating family court. Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, Sonya practiced in the areas of family law, criminal defense, and bankruptcy.

Sonya is a 2007 graduate from the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawaii at Manoa. She graduated with a B.S. in Political Science from the University of Oregon. Sonya relocated to Nevada from Maui, Hawaii, in 2015. She is licensed to practice law in Nevada, Hawaii, and Indiana.