

Terry R. Bratton
Chief Financial Director

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

Terry Bratton has served as chief financial director of Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada since 1996. In this capacity, he has supported the organization through a period of explosive growth. His areas of responsibility include financial planning and management, human resource development and facility operations. During this period, he also managed the acquisition and renovation of the current Legal Aid Center headquarters and the newly acquired land adjacent to the existing structure, which is intended for future development. These accomplishments have helped establish a firm financial footing for the organization in the Southern Nevada community.

Mr. Bratton earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Nevada Las Vegas and is a board member of the Association of Legal Administrators, Las Vegas chapter.
