

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF ADRIAN W. ROSEHILL

Adrian joined the Legal Aid Center in 2014 as an attorney in the Children's Attorneys Project representing abused and neglected children. He is a native of Honolulu, Hawaii having recently relocated to Las Vegas. Prior to joining the Legal Aid Center, Adrian was in private practice in Honolulu focusing on commercial litigation in the areas of real property, contracts, commercial leasing, foreclosures, commercial collections and bankruptcy. While in practice, Adrian was a member of the board of directors for the Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation, a non-profit advocating on behalf of native Hawaiians who could not afford legal representation.

Adrian is licensed to practice law in the State of Hawaii. He received his Juris Doctorate degree from the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawaii, and his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Colorado, Boulder.