

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF MADELINE LA FORGIA

Madeline joined Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in 2014 as an attorney with the Family Justice Project. Madeline represents victims of domestic violence and crime in family law and immigration proceedings. Prior to joining Legal Aid Center, Madeline worked for 12 years at CAMBA Legal Services in New York where she was the Senior Program Director and managed all legal services activities including Victims Services in the Immigration Unit.

Madeline received her Juris Doctor from City University of New York School of Law at Queens College and her Bachelor of Science degree from City University of New York, John Jay College.