

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT OF ROBERT FLEMING

Robert Fleming a staff attorney in the Consumer Rights Project. Roberts manages the Social Security Disability work at Legal Aid Center representing helping indigent clients with appeals after being denied social security benefits. Robert represents clients in Medicare hearings, overpayments and cessations and assists clients with various consumer matters. Prior to his work at Legal Aid Center, Robert served as a staff supervisor, carpenter and technical worker for 13 years at the Desert entertainment Group. He initially joined Nevada Legal Services as a staff attorney and transferred to Legal Aid Center after one year.

Robert received his Bachelor of Arts in 1984 at St. John's University, New York and his Juris Doctor from New York Law School in 1987. He is current a member of the State Bar of Nevada, State Bar of New York, American Bar Association and the Clark county Bar Association.