Paul Martin is the co-founder and president of Nevadans for Equal Access which is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation specializing in improving access for individuals with disabilities in the State of Nevada. Nevadans for Equal Access is a small organization, has no paid staff and utilizes volunteer support only. Nevadans for Equal Access has been a successful non-profit organization since 1994, accomplishing more than many non-profit organizations with a fraction of the resources. Nevadans for Equal Access partners with local corporations like Home Depot to assist individuals in obtaining and installing ramps so that individuals can get into their home. Nevadans for Equal Access also assists individuals with disabilities so they are able to access businesses to secure their shopping and other needs.

Paul was invited to join the board of Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada in 1996 and has been an active board member since. Paul is also a Retired U.S. Army Disabled Veteran.
